

Cruit Éireann, Harp Ireland's Guiding Principles for Fundraising

Our fundraising standards and your rights as a donor:

Cruit Éireann, Harp Ireland is committed to transparency and accountability in all our work.

These voluntary principles aim to:

- improve fundraising practice
- promote high levels of accountability and transparency in fundraising
- provide clarity and assurances to donors about the organisations they support.

Read our Donor Charter, Feedback and Complaints Procedure and details of how we comply with these principles.

Donor Charter:

As a charity seeking donations from the public, Cruit Éireann, Harp Ireland aims to comply with the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising. Our pledge is to treat our donors with respect, honesty and openness. We commit to being accountable and transparent, so that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in Cruit Éireann, Harp Ireland.

We promise we will apply your gifts to us for their intended purposes.

We commit that you, our donors and prospective donors will:

- be informed of the organisation's vision and mission, and of the way the organisation intends to use donated resources
- be informed of the identity of those serving on the organisation's governing board, and that the board will exercise prudent judgement in its stewardship responsibilities
- have access to the organisation's most recent financial statements
- be assured your gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given
- receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition, in accordance with your wishes
- be assured that information about your donation is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent enabled by law
- expect that all relationships with individuals representing the charity will be dealt with professionally
- be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of the organisation or hired third party agents
- have access to the agreed procedures for providing Cruit Éireann, Harp Ireland with feedback and/or making complaints

- have the opportunity for any names to be removed from mailing lists upon request and to be informed if the organisation intends to share the mailing lists with third parties
- receive prompt, truthful and forthright responses to any questions you might have concerning the organisation.

Feedback and Complaints Procedure:

Cruit Éireann, Harp Ireland is committed to ensuring that all communications and dealings with our supporters and the general public are of the highest possible standard. We listen and respond to your views so that we can continue to improve our communications.

We aim to ensure that:

- it is as easy as possible to make a complaint
- we treat as a complaint: any clear expression of dissatisfaction with our operations which calls for a response
- we treat complaints seriously whether made by telephone, letter, email or in person
- we address complaints within 10 working days
- we respond appropriately with actions taken to rectify and/or provide further information
- we learn from complaints and feedback, using them to improve
- complaints are monitored at management and Board level.

If you have any feedback or a complaint about any aspect of our work, you can contact Cruit Éireann, Harp Ireland in writing or by telephone.

Please give us as much information as possible and let us know if and how you would like us to respond, providing relevant contact details to:
