Privacy Notice

We respect the privacy of those who visit our web site and those who provide personally identifiable information, our valued customers and members. In accordance with this, please take note of the privacy commitment to our website users.

Information Collection & Use

We use tracking information to determine which areas our site users visit based on traffic to those areas. Our system logs and records your IP address, dates and times of site visits, the pages visited, type of browser and cookie information. This data is only used to measure the number of visitors to the site, to help us maintain a superior and informative website for you and will not be used to identify you.

Visitors may decide to send an email via the site in which may be included personally identifying information. Such information is only used to enable a suitable response.

Personally identifiable information is collected in the quick contact form. We will use this information to respond to your request and to contact you about our services should this be applicable.

Disclaimer

Harp Ireland does not control the privacy policies of any other sites to which we provide hyperlinks or might suggest or recommend in any way. Voluntarily disclosing personal information on sites hyperlinked to or suggested by harpireland.ie is done at your own risk.
